THE CHIEF'S DRUM

Dear Brothers,

As we approach the coming year, I would charge all of you to take a greater role in helping our lodge move forward. For those who have not been to a Lodge meeting in a while, come to the next one, and enjoy the food and fellowship. For those who have not yet been to an LEC meeting, come to our next one and get a better understanding of how the Lodge functions under the surface. They are held the last Tuesday of every month of the school year at 7:00 PM. Lastly, for those who do not currently hold any position in the Lodge, take one on and become a more active member. The workload is usually light but the benefits great. You can always reach me by email at Lodge Chief, or find me at a Lodge meeting or LEC.

We need all the hands we can get this year especially, because our lodge will be hosting Conclave for the entire region in August 2009. This is a great amount of work to be done, but as the saying goes, many hands makes for light work. But only members who are active and involved with helping will be able to feel the satisfaction of a job well done when Conclave goes off in August. I invite all of you to share that feeling.

Sincerely,
Andrew C.

Advisor's Alley

Welcome back. I hope you had a terrific summer. Our lodge was well represented around the country this summer. We had arrowmen at Philmont as well as part of the arrowcorp5 national parks service projects. I saw many of you at TMR and I know that many of you were busy at other council camps as well. And for those of you who worked at our Cub Day Camp, thank you. You helped to set a great example and hopefully we have recruited new scouts as well as future arrowmen. Now, it is back to business.

Annual day and officer induction is Sept 21. Please come to the meeting and show your support for our new officers and LEC chairmen. Our ordeal is in a few weeks, in October. Joe H. is once again serving as the honors master. Please volunteer to help. Let's make this a special event for our incoming brothers.

This is new school year and a new scout year as well. Let's set some goals and make this the best year that AQ 112 has seen. Show you support by attending events and making suggestions that will make us even better. Get involved. You can make a difference!

NOAC

National Order of the Arrow Conference Summer of 2009 Estimated July 29 thru Aug 8. The actual conference is August 1-6

Once again, NOAC will be held at Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana. Here is an opportunity to meet with 8,000 arrowmen from across the U.S. to share ideas, hear great presentations, play sports and see a terrific show each night. There are competitions in sports, OA ceremonies, Native American dancing and much more.

If you are interested in attending, we must have a $100 deposit by Sept 21. That is Annual Day at Berlin, so we hope to see you there. If you have any questions about NOAC, please contact Andy Selowentchich at andyaq112@aol.com

Save the Date

Conclave

By the time you are reading this, Section NE2C will have completed its last conclave as a section. Our brothers in Shu-Shu-Ga once again did an outstanding job as the host lodge. AQ112 had a great time judging ceremonialists from the other 9 lodges as we completed our job in running the American Indian Affairs section. Lots of ideas were shared, not only for NOAC but also to improve our ceremonies in each of the lodges in the section. Come to annual day in Sept to see more of the conclave adventures.
